This action has been filed by the Plaintiff, pro se, pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983. At the time this action was filed, Plaintiff was a resident of Geo Care, involuntarily committed by the Aiken County Probate Court. Plaintiff alleges violations of his constitutional rights by the named Defendant.

On May 21, 2012, the Court issued an order for the case to be brought into proper form and specifically instructed the Plaintiff as follows:

You are ordered to always keep the Clerk of Court advised in writing...if your address changes for any reason, so as to assure that orders or other matters that specify deadlines for you to meet will be received by you. If as a result of your failure to comply with this order, you fail to file something you are required to file within a deadline set by a District Judge or a Magistrate Judge, your case may be dismissed for violating this order. Therefore, if you have a change of address before this case has ended, you must comply with this order by immediately advising the Clerk of Court in writing of such change of address....Your failure to do so will not be excused by the Court. (emphasis added)

On August 24, 2012 the case was brought into proper form and the undersigned issued an order authorizing service of process and directing the United States Marshals Service to serve the amended complaint on Defendant. However, since the filing of the proper form order, a Report and Recommendation issued by the undersigned and an Order by the United States District Judge adopting that Report and Recommendation have been returned to the Clerk of Court marked "wrong address," and "no longer here." Plaintiff has failed to provide the Court with a current mailing address, and as a result neither the Court nor the Defendant have any means of contacting him concerning his case.

Based on the foregoing, it is recommended that this action be dismissed, with prejudice, pursuant to Rule 41(b), Fed.R.Civ.P. The Clerk is directed to send this Report and Recommendation to Plaintiff at his last known address.

If the Plaintiff notifies the Court within the time set forth for filing objections to this Report and Recommendation that he wishes to continue with this case and provides a current address, the Clerk is directed to vacate this Report and Recommendation and return this file to the undersigned for further handling. If, however, no objections are filed, the Clerk shall forward this Report and Recommendation to the District Judge for disposition.

The parties are advised that they may file specific written objections to this Report and Recommendation with the District Judge. Objections must specifically identify the portions of the Report and Recommendation to which objections are made and the basis for such objections. “[I]n the absence of a timely filed objection, a district court need not conduct a de novo review, but instead must ‘only satisfy itself that there is no clear error on the face of the record in order to accept the recommendation.’” Diamond v. Colonial Life & Acc. Ins. Co., 416 F.3d 310 (4th Cir. 2005) (quoting Fed. R. Civ. P. 72 advisory committee’s note).

Specific written objections must be filed within fourteen (14) days of the date of service of this Report and Recommendation. 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1); Fed. R. Civ. P. 72(b); see Fed. R. Civ. P. 6(a), (d). Filing by mail pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 5 may be accomplished by mailing objections to:
